

The Right Mindset For The College Application Process

With Monicah Wangui and Rachael Mugendi

Grit

Grit is passion and perseverance for long-term and meaningful goals

Ability to persist in something you feel passionate about and persevere when you face obstacles will go a long way in helping you through this process.

“To be gritty is to keep putting one foot in front of the other. To be gritty is to hold fast to an interesting and purposeful goal. To be gritty is to invest, day after week after year, in challenging practice. To be gritty is to fall seven times, and rise eight.”

Angela Lee Duckworth

TALENT * EFFORT = SKILL

SKILL * EFFORT = ACHIEVEMENT

Networking and Teamwork

Interact with other global scholars and your fellow mentees.

Work with your fellow mentees as TEAMMATES, not COMPETITORS!

These are the people who will be there for you when your mentor is not available

BEING RESOURCEFUL

Be active in searching resources to help you through this application; it could be through reading blogs to help you with essay writing or watching youtube videos. Just be resourceful!

OPEN-MINDEDNESS

1. EXPLORING DIFFERENT COURSES
OTHER THAN MEDICINE

2. APPLYING TO SCHOOLS OUTSIDE THE US.

3. ACCEPTING FEEDBACK FROM MENTORS

DIVERSIFYING YOUR APPLICATION.

Applying to both 'big schools' and liberal arts colleges.

Applying outside the US.

Casting your net wide.
