

Overview.

St. Lawrence is a liberal arts college and therefore requires an open minded person who's willing to be diverse.

It's good to apply during the RD cycle, that is in matters of Financial aid.

Insider Tips.

St. Lawrence doesn't have supplements (essays) therefore you need to have a good app and by that I mean:-

- Have a strong, vulnerable personal statement.
- Have a unique experience/brand/ card that basically sets you apart in order to stand out.
- A good transcript (As)and an international honour can make you stand out among pools of international applicants.
- Show diverse activities in your gap year , remember it's liberal arts college.
- Your activities should show impact ,as an international student this is key.
- Playing the FIRST GENERATION card is key in order to get a scholarship.
- Play the AFRICAN CARD so that your achievements reflect your hard work despite circumstances.
- Have Stellaris LORs!!
- Be diverse but specific!!!
