Always read from the beginning of a sentence all the way to the period

It = Singular Noun
They = Plural Noun

Transitions: continue, contradict, or cause-and-effect?

Apostrophe + s = sing. poss.
S + apostrophe = pl. poss.

"Student" Notes: ID key word in question, and find answer that matches; avoid bullet points

Colon = Period when sentence #2 explains or defines sentence #1

2 commas = 2 dashes
= 2 parentheses

List items can be separated by commas OR semicolons, but can't be mixed

Period = Semicolon
= Comma + and/but

Singular verbs end in -s;
plural verbs do not

Comma + s/he, it, they usually = WRONG (comma splice)

Conjunctive adverbs: start of clause = period/semicolon;
middle of clause = 2 commas

Colon = explanation or list; follows a sentence; followed by sentence or fragment

Dangling Modifier: a phrase describing a noun must be followed by that noun
